Bipartisan Senate Chiefs of Staff Conference
Annapolis, Maryland | September 13-15, 2019

Friday, September 13, 2019

2:30pm	Depart Dirksen via buses
3:30-4:30pm	Maryland State House – Greeting by Senator Ben Cardin The oldest American state house in continuous legislative use, dating to 1779, and the U.S. Capitol from November 26, 1783, to August 19, 1784. Senator Cardin will welcome chiefs to his state capital and speak about his legislative experiences working across the aisle.
4:30pm	Walk to the Historic Inns of Annapolis. Luggage retrieval and hotel check-in.
6:00-8:00pm	Dinner – Governor’s Mansion with visit by Governor and Mrs. Hogan. Governor Lawrence J. Hogan, Jr. was sworn in as the 62nd governor of the State of Maryland on January 21, 2015. In 2018, he was re-elected to a second four-year term. Maryland’s first lady is Yumi Hogan, a first-generation Korean-American, artist and teacher. Governor Hogan will address his challenges and successes leading a politically-divided state government.

Saturday, September 14, 2019

8:30-9:30am	Breakfast at your leisure, Calvert House, Historic Inns
9:30-11:00am	Amy Mitchell, Pew Research Center Americans' Views of Their Local News. With an informed citizenry being essential to an effective democracy, where Americans get their news and their trust in those sources is critical. While much attention is paid to national cable news, a significant number of Americans still rely on local sources for news and information. Amy Mitchell will discuss Pew's recent survey of 34,897 adults on their views of local news and the implications for policymakers.

- 11:30am-1:00pm Lunch
Captain Thomas Buchanan, 88th Commandant of Midshipmen, United States Naval Academy
 Commandant Buchanan will provide chiefs with an overview of the Academy's mission and walk through the four-year cycle of a Midshipman. Because Senators are given the opportunity to make nominations, he will also provide insights into the qualities sought by the Academy in the admissions process.
- 1:15-2:45pm Professor Joanne Freeman (Yale University)
The Field of Blood: Violence in Congress and the Road to Civil War.
 Professor Freeman recovers the long-lost story of physical violence on the floor of the U.S. Congress. Drawing on an extraordinary range of sources, she shows that the Capitol was rife with conflict in the decades before the Civil War. Professor Freeman will bring historical context and insight to today's partisan and factional challenges in Congress.
- 2:45-3:00pm Break
- 3:00-4:30pm David Pogue (The New York Times and CBS Sunday Morning)
A.I., Robotics, and America in 2050.
 From 2000 to 2013, David Pogue was the New York Times weekly tech columnist. After a five-year detour to Yahoo Finance, he's now he's back at the Times, writing the "Crowdwise" feature for the "Smarter Living" section. He's a four-time Emmy winner for his stories on "CBS Sunday Morning," and a host of 17 science specials on "NOVA" on PBS. David will talk about the latest advances in artificial intelligence and robotics and the implications for policy makers, the U.S. economy, government, and society as a whole.
- 6:30-8:00pm Dinner
Keynote Speaker – Derrick Wang, composer, "Scalia/Ginsburg"
(U.S. Naval Academy Officers Club)
 Derrick Wang serves on the faculty of the Peabody Conservatory of The Johns Hopkins University, where he designs and teaches interdisciplinary courses on music and law and lectures on the power of the arts to transcend political divides. Derrick will speak about the unexpected and unique bipartisan relationship between Supreme Court Justices Antonin Scalia and Ruth Bader Ginsburg centered around their shared appreciation for opera and lessons which can be learned and applied to the legislative branch. He will also share a few selections from his opera, "Scalia/Ginsburg" which was written using the actual words and opinions of the two justices.

13. Through both its information and advocacy work, The Pew Charitable Trusts seeks to inform and advance the development of sound public policy in the United States, as well as to strengthen the institutions that form the foundations of our democracy. A major component of this ongoing strategy has been to help create an environment in which policy makers can productively deliberate important issues of the day. The purpose of the conference is to provide a collaborative environment for the chiefs of staff to learn from experts and discuss issues of importance to an effective legislative process.
14. The Pew Charitable Trusts has directly sponsored congressional travel. This will be the seventh Senate chiefs of staff conference hosted by Pew (2007, 2009, 2011, 2014, 2015, 2017). In the past, the Pew Charitable Trusts has also funded other institutions via grants to conduct their educational programs and some of these programs may have included congressional travel.
15. The Pew Charitable Trusts is driven by the power of knowledge to solve today's most challenging problems. Pew applies a rigorous, analytical approach to improve public policy, inform the public and invigorate civic life. We partner with a diverse range of donors, public and private organizations and concerned citizens who share our commitment to fact-based solutions and goal-driven investments to improve society. Pew issues dozens of research reports each year to educate the public and policy makers. Pew also sponsors convenings of researchers and experts to examine various issues of public policy and civic life.

The Pew Charitable Trusts

Invites You and Your Spouse/Significant Other
To the 7th Biennial

Senate Chiefs of Staff Management and Leadership Conference

Annapolis, Maryland
September 13-15, 2019

The Pew Charitable Trusts will host a conference for the Senate Chiefs of Staff from September 13-15, 2019, in Annapolis, Maryland. It promises to be an engaging weekend where you can learn from some of the most interesting speakers on management, leadership, and civility today. A copy of the agenda is attached.

We will depart from behind the Dirksen Building on Friday, September 13, on a chartered bus and return on Sunday, September 15. Chiefs' expenses (minus alcohol and entertainment) are covered by The Pew Charitable Trusts. If you wish to invite your spouse, you may reimburse Pew for those expenses (estimated at around $175) after the conference.

Your pre-travel paperwork is due to the Select Committee on Ethics, 220 Hart, no later than Wednesday, August 14, 2019. You do not need to list accompanying spouses/significant others on the ethics form. Click here to download the paperwork.
